How the Slab Works

The applicable annual price is determined by the partner's active client count at the time of billing or renewal.

Each package limit applies per client organization.

Commercial Terms

Clear and simple terms for a smooth partnership.

- 1 Prices are annual subscription charges and exclude GST.
- 2 Employee limits are per active client account.
- 3 Customization, data migration, devices, onsite training and third-party services are chargeable separately unless included in writing.
- 4 Pricing, features and commercial terms are subject to confirmation in the final reseller agreement.
- 5 Renewals will be billed according to the applicable active-client slab at that time.
